

TONY ALAMO'S ANSWER TO RABBI NURI

It was brought to my attention that in the July 27 edition of the Jewish Times, Miami Beach, Florida, Rabbi Nuri has responded to my testimony entitled "Conversion". It never fails to amaze me when I read the Old Testament and look at the Jews today and see the same deliberate, ignorant defiance of the words, commands, and desires of the Almighty, Holy Eternal God.

The Jewish Old Testament plainly reveals that on numerous occasions we Jewish people defiantly disobeyed God's instructions; and for this, God punished us severely. This He did to warn the others not to do the same; and the punishment served as a testimony to all others who wished to be defiant to the words, commands, statutes, precepts, and divine ordinances of the Holy One of Israel.

Rabbi Nuri states that it is unfortunate that I wasn't brought up in a synagogue, but I would like to remind the Rabbi that neither was Moses nor Aaron, nor any of the other prophets who wrote by divine instruction the Old Testament and the New. Moses was raised as an Egyptian prince and knew nothing of his heritage. His first encounter with the Almighty came not from a rabbi, but from the burning bush; Jehovah spoke to him personally (Ex. 3:4-22) as He did to me in the Beverly Hills office. Thus, His voice was not heard by any others. God's message to Moses caused the Jews to rise up against Moses on many occasions. The message Moses relayed from God infuriated the self-indulgent, self-willed, and ungodly throng that God had delivered with an outstretched arm by the hand of His servant, Moses, and his brother Aaron. For this God chastened the Jews many times. God was angry with the Jews and would not allow them to enter into Canaan, the Holy Land. Rather, their carcasses were left on the desert, and only their offspring with the exception of Caleb and Joshua were allowed in. They learned of their heritage by the hand of He (Moses) who had no formal teachings from traditional rabbis. Moses was led by God as the Lord spoke unto him. (Deut. 2:1)

Neither in the Torah nor anywhere in the Bible is there one contradictory statement in regard to the message about the Messiah. I grant you that man, gentile and Jew alike, has rebelliously opposed the Word of God and said that there were contradictions, but the true scholar of the Bible endowed with the spirit of knowledge from on-high knows that these men "cavil" (i.e.: write and talk about things which they know nothing about). In the days of the Old Testament, as well as today, Satan has always had his agents twisting and vehemently trying to lead the people away from God. Moses and the prophets did not so, nor will the true called of God do so today or ever. They of God shall never be people-pleasers; rather their only wish is to please He who is the undisputed monarch of the universe. Man-made traditions of the Jews are plainly shown in the Jewish Bible as being abominable to the Creator. Israel was commanded by God to follow His Word and pay strict attention to the prophecies of the coming deliverer so that they would be able to recognize Him upon His descent from Heaven. The prophet, Daniel, told of the Messiah's arrival as well as of His departure (death). (Dan. 9:24-26) The Messiah was to be born of a virgin. (Isa. 7:14) The Messiah was to be begotten by God via the Holy Spirit. The Messiah was to be called Immanuel, meaning "God with Us".

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder: and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace" (Isa. 9:6).

Isaiah spoke of the Messiah and stated that He would be a Jew, that the Messiah would be meek, lowly, acquainted with sorrow and grief, that the Jewish nation would esteem Him not, and that the Messiah would be killed for the sins of the world. (Isa. 53:3-12) King David the Psalmist told in what manner the Messiah would die; that He would have nail-pierced hands and feet. (Psalms 22:16) Zechariah told of the amount for which the Messiah would be sold. (30 pieces of silver) (Zech. 11:12) The Old Testament, which the rabbis of today clearly do not preach, but conceal from the eyes of the world, paints a perfect visage of the Holy One, the Messiah that our people the Jews were to expect. Over 330 clues eloquently paint the portrait of the One whom God spoke to when He said, "Let Us make man in Our image, in Our image let Us make man." (Gen. 1:26)

God told Abraham that his seed would bless every nation. This meant that when the Messiah came all the nations of the world would eventually find salvation from an eternal hell through their belief in the promised Holy One of Israel. But the rabbis, wishing for their sins not to be detected, deliberately and secretly obscured the scriptures, not only to their own Jewish people, but also to all the other nations of the world. Satan is satisfied.

Because of sin in Eden by the first two innocents, from the beginning God has called for the prophets proclaiming the coming of His Son, the Deliverer of Israel. The Creator and His Son moved to remedy the dilemma of certain death and hell to all inhabitants of earth. A law of sacrifice became necessary for atonement of sin pointing to the coming of the great and real sacrifice, the Son of God, the Messiah. To Abel, the blood sacrifice symbolic of that which was to come, was not grievous but joyous, for it offered God's only means of escape from hell (salvation). It was grievous to Cain, as it also is to the defiant today. (They wish not to accept the only means of redemption provided by God-His Son). Instead the people today wish to make themselves appear holy by ordinances not of God, but manmade Jewish fables and traditions.

When the true sacrifice, the Messiah, (Son of God) came and sacrificed himself as Isaiah said He would, and the Psalmist David said He would, and Zechariah said He would, and Moses said He would, and all the prophets said He would, then these ordinances of sacrifice were to end because the true sacrifice (the Holy One of Israel, the Messiah) had completed His work on the tree. (Heb. 9:26) And the way of salvation now, as it was then, is belief that God has sacrificed His only begotten Son to save us from our sins. It is the gift of God, and God wants us to know that. This means that the work of salvation was wrought by the hand of God. The Messiah said as he died on the tree, "It is finished." (John 19:30) (He was referring to the work of salvation, redemption, and the means of escape from hell for mankind, provided alone by the Creator, He who the prophets of God foretold. Isn't that simple? God said the simplicity would be a stumbling block to many, but that those who would believe would obtain everlasting life.

God delivered the nation of Israel from Egypt to be a nation of, by, and for God. He wanted the people of Israel to obey His every command so He could bless them and when the rest of the world asked, "Why are you so blessed?" the Jewish nation could reply, "Because we keep God's commandments and we have accepted His Messiah, His Deliverer, His Holy One." Thus, it would come into being that every nation would be blessed through the seed of Abraham as God told Abraham, and as Moses had written. However, today as in the past, the rabbis wish to obscure the Word of God not only from the Jewish people, but also from the nations of the world. What a tragedy!!

Rabbi Nuri calls me anti-Semitic. Does he also call God who delivered the Jews from Egypt, anti-Semitic because God chastened the Jewish people for their rebellion and defiance? All God wanted was that the world should know Him and that He is good and that He has provided a way of escape. This escape can only be found through knowing His Word, through accepting His Son, the Holy One; the One who fulfilled every prophecy given about him in the Old Jewish Testament.

God commissioned all of His prophets, Moses, Ezekiel, and the others to be evangelists and to tell the people what He had said; for this, the Rabbi calls me an evildoer. When we read the Old Testament, Moses and all the prophets, we hear God saying, "Tell the people, thus saith the Lord." I prefer to be called an evildoer by rabbis (man) than to suffer the displeasure or wrath of God.

God has given many significant forewarnings of the Second Advent of His Son both in the Old and New Testament. Thus he has commissioned his servants to warn the people of the wrath that is to come for rejection. Why does the Rabbi obscure deliverance (the only deliverance God offers)? Why do the rabbis continue to obscure the prophecies of both the first and second comings of the Messiah? God, in the Old Testament, tells why. Because they are the sons of Belial, blind leaders of the blind. God said all that follow them shall fall into the pit. Harken unto me, saith the Lord and "Cease ye from man in whose nose is one breath, for how lightly is he to be accounted of?" (Isa. 2:22) God's wrath is kindled against those who fear man. "Will ye fear a man that shall die?" (Isa. 51:12) "The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: But Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider." (Isa. 1:3)

Rabbi Nuri states that he would like to educate the Jewish people so that they will not be deceived. This would be refreshing. However, it cannot be done by educating them into meaningless Jewish tradition or old wives' tales, but only by educating them into the true Word of God, which includes the aforementioned prophecies. They must also preach faith and the belief in God's Word, His Son, and not sow doubt into their congregation's hearts; it is by faith in the Word of God that we become saved and by doubt are we damned. (Romans 14:23) When they disbelieved God and murmured in their hearts against His Word, the Jewish people had to die.

The Messiah and the people that follow the Messiah are the best friends that the Jews ever had. It was not Christians that killed Jews and Protestants in the Spanish Inquisition or in World War II; it was the Vatican (Catholics) who are not Christians. Christianity and Catholicism are worlds apart. Christianity is accepting the full Word of God which commands them, "thou shalt not kill." Catholicism says that believe in the Catholic Church or we'll burn you, kill you, torture you, imprison you. Quite a difference, isn't it? It is not Christianity that causes wars, but religions, such as Catholicism, that have killed Christians by the millions, as well as the Jews. Yes, the Vatican is also our public enemy #1.

Hitler, Mussolini, and Franco were all Catholics, financed by the Vatican to win the world for Romanism, Vaticanism, Catholicism, the mother of harlots, the mother of every abomination on earth. (Rev. 6, 13, 17, 18) And to me, and to my Jewish people, they are our worst enemy. Stay away from Catholicism. They are haters of God, haters of Christianity, and haters of the Jews. Stay away also from the One World Church which is headed by the Vatican. God said this organization is headed by Belial, and any that join her and stay in her will go to hell. God instructs us to stay out of her. God said if we do stay out of her, we shall suffer persecution, but we shall have God, and we shall inherit the Kingdom of God.

God said He would turn His back on us Jews for 2,000 years because of our rejection of the Messiah, but after the 2,000 years He would call a remnant of us, Jews that would love His Word and be faithful to preach it as were His other faithful, that we would not be afraid to tell the truth to a world that is lost and on its way to hell. Yes, God said that some of us Jews would be preaching the gospel (His Word) just before the Messiah comes the second time, and before He burns up the world with a fervent heat. This is a sign of the "end-times", so you see; I am a sign of the end-times. I am a Jew, and I am telling you the truth of God's own Holy Word. "Believe it and live, for why die ye?" (Ezek. 18:31) "Come now and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." (Isa. 1:18)

Rabbi Nuri says that God's word and the people who preach it are using unfair tactics. I have been reading the Old and New Testament for nineteen years now and have never found God to be unfair; I have found Him very fair. Who else would send His only begotten Son to die for such as we? Who are we that God would send His Son to die for us? Doesn't this make God good? By obscuring this, doesn't this reveal the evil work of the Rabbi?

This Rabbi Nuri has the unmitigated gall and blind arrogance to say that the Jews came up with the concept of the Messiah. There is a lot of difference between man's concept and divine prophecies from Heaven. Divine words from God are far from human concepts. "My ways are higher than man's saith the Lord, for ye are on earth and I am in Heaven." (Isa. 55:8, 9) The Rabbi is totally ignorant of God and knows nothing. The Messiah is not a concept, but a reality. The only means of escape is provided by God; thus, it is an act of magnificent ignorance and an abomination for the Rabbi to say that the Jews, even though I am one, have an exclusive on God, when God plainly stated to Abraham that His Messiah was to bless all nations, the Jews to be the example to the rest. (Gen. 12:3) But God says that “ye are stiffnecked and stony hearted and do always err.” (Deut. 9:6) God became so angry with this type of attitude that He said He would turn to the Goyim, and he did. But now He is turning to a remnant of Jews and some rabbis in Israel have had their eyes opened by God and are now preaching the truth as I preach it to you now.

The Rabbi Nuri says that I will not go to an orthodox rabbi or Jew. I have challenged many orthodox rabbis and Jews, but as I said when I first came to Miami and as I still say, the orthodox rabbis and Jews are afraid of the truth, and are therefore, incapable of discussing the scriptures on an intelligent basis with me. If they believe their scriptures as they say they do, and if they keep them, and deny that the Messiah has come, why then do they not have blood sacrifices? Because their own scriptures, which I know very, very well, state that without the shedding of blood there is no remission for sin. (Lev. 17:11) In this, do they greatly err. You are all in your sins because you do not have a blood sacrifice, refusing to accept the offering for sin that God has provided which your own scriptures tell of. The rabbi calls them great Jewish scholars, God calls them dead in their sins, that they are lost in sin, and cannot know anything for they are in darkness. Read the scriptures for yourself – they are easy to understand and there is no private interpretation of them. They mean exactly what they say. These blind leaders of the blind do everything they can to make God’s word their concept, so they can do anything they please, living comfortably in sin. But it will not be a comfortable way to die. “The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord” (Rom. 6:23) who fulfilled all that was prophesied of him, including dying on a tree and shedding his blood. (Isa. 53:8, I Cor. 15:3) God endorsed Jesus as being the Messiah by sending down His eternal Spirit from His chambers in Heaven. This powerful eternal Spirit of Life then entered the narrow tomb where the Messiah’s body had lain cold and dead for three days. The resurrecting power of life found only in the Holy Spirit from God which is eternal moved quickly into the Messiah’s still cold corpse. The pulse of life began, and while the earth reeled with a mighty earthquake, the Messiah strode triumphantly out from the grave that had imprisoned Him, the champion and Prince of Life. Yes, not only did he conquer death for us, but also hell and the grave. What a savior!! God raised the Messiah from the dead and Jesus the Messiah is alive right now, sitting on the right hand of power in Heaven, interceding for those that will draw nigh.

God makes a promise to the Jews. Ask God for yourself if what Bernie Lazar Hoffman is telling you is the truth; He will show you a sign.

When my wife was discussing the scriptures with Rabbi Saunderland in Los Angeles the Holy Spirit fell on her and she started speaking in Hebrew, a language that she cannot speak or understand. The rabbi became very frightened and told her to stop saying the things she was saying. When the Holy Spirit lifted, my wife asked the rabbi what she had said, and persisted until he did. But he made her promise that while he lived, she would tell no one. Rabbi Saunderland told my wife, “When I was in a concentration camp and they were marching me to another one, I had a vision. On a hill I saw Moses standing tall and straight with a staff in his hand and behind him I saw the Messiah dying on the cross for the sins of the world.” This my wife told him in a language she did not speak or understand, and told him something he had told no one, what he had seen in the vision years before. My wife told him, “Rabbi, you know the truth, why don’t you tell others?” He then stated, “Daughter, I am too old, I cannot fight them (the Jews).” My wife then told him, “You will get in trouble with God for obscuring the truth.” He replied, “Daughter, I’m too old, I just cannot fight them. How tragic!! How cowardly!! How sinful!!

I am telling you these Godly words because I do not want the blood of your souls on my soul when I stand before God Almighty and His Son. According to the words that God spoke to Ezekiel, the blood of your souls is now off my hands. (Ezek. 18:9) Though I know I shall receive persecution for telling you the truth, I will not be as the frightened, sinful Rabbi. I would rather have man fight against me than the Almighty God. I know the truth and I will not hide it, no matter what happens to me. Repent or Perish.

Rabbi Nuri says he would like to know what kind of a Jew I think I am and what kind of mission God’s people are on. I claim to be a Jew and I am. According to the Word of God, neither the Rabbi nor anyone is a Jew until they accept the Jewish Messiah and the Word from the God of the Jews which the Rabbi plainly hates. So I am a real Jew because I do accept the word from the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, just as Abraham did. Thus was he called by God faithful and God’s friend. (Isa. 41:8) I accept the words of the Jewish Messiah and I love His words. I do not reject them. This makes me a complete Jew. Rabbi Nuri is not a rabbi chosen by God; the Rabbi selected his vocation himself. But I was called by God himself, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, as was Moses and all other true Jewish prophets.

About the only true statement that I read in the article that the Jewish Rabbi Nuri made was, “Jewish tradition has never tried to force people to convert to Judaism.” We force no one either. If the Rabbi feels that I am forcing you to do anything, this is untrue. I am only telling you the truth, the words from the Lord of Hosts, the God that created the heavens and the earth and the fullness thereof. God forces no one Himself, but He does tell what the consequences will be for not believing Him, for not receiving His Son, for not keeping His law. God gives a list of the blessings for doing what He says and for receiving His Son and the curses for not doing what He says and rejecting His Son. He allows us, as free moral agents, to make a choice. He says that if you refuse to follow me and keep my commandments, which are not man’s tradition, ye shall be cursed. The whole world lies under the wrath of God. Only one has taken that wrath away. He is the Prince of Peace. In Him we find peace with God.

The Rabbi says he can accept the differences of the people. The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob says to only accept him; all else is idolatry which God hates. When God turned to the Goyim, as He told the Jews He would, He said in the end-times he would turn to a remnant of the Jews because the gentiles would pervert His Word (and they did). As did the Jews of old, so does Rabbi Nuri today. God's Word plainly states, "Without holiness no man shall see God." (Heb. 12:14) Unless we accept the Jewish Messiah and proclaim this rule to others, we shall not see Him either. For Rabbi Nuri to state that the gentiles should only keep some of the commandments and discard others, he is instructing the world almost in its entirety to go to hell. (Is this a godly man? I think not. Is this following the instructions God gave to Abraham that all nations shall be blessed through the seed through the Messiah?) Because of this type of teaching, the world now suffers the worst corruption ever known. We are headed toward destruction and the same bondage under people (the Vatican-Catholics) motivated by evil, just as we were in the inquisition and the holocaust, if we don't wake up and repent.

For Rabbi Nuri to tell the Jewish people not to believe the Word of God and not to accept God's only Messiah makes him the chief leader of the exodus of God's chosen people into darkness. (The exact opposite of Moses). God dwells in the light and His Son dwells in the light. His Word, as stated by the Psalmist David and all the prophets is a lamp unto our feet (Psalms 119:105). No wonder this Rabbi who leads men into darkness wants the people to rely on him and others like him who are in darkness while claiming to be wise.

It is not any criteria at all whether a person accepts another person for his disbelief or belief; the great criteria is not desire to be accepted by man for he can never get us favor with God. Our desire should only be the acceptance of God on His conditions through obedience to His Word, and not the praise of man through politics. God said that disobedience to His Word is like witchcraft (I Sam. 15:23). It is certain that in a holy, clean, uncontaminated Heaven no witch shall dwell therein. If you don't believe my quotation of these scriptures, pick up the Bible and read it for yourself. Don't place your soul in the hands of these uneducated and sinful rabbis because we shall all stand individually before God. If the Rabbi is wrong, as I affirm that he is, he is going to be in a lot of trouble. Nowhere in the Bible does it say for us to believe in the rabbi; rather it plainly states to believe in God and His Son and to search out all matters yourself so that you will not be in the same trouble as the Rabbi. But will the Rabbi tell you this? No, because if you do search out these things, the Rabbi knows very well that he will no longer have you in spiritual bondage because you will be able to see clearly, as I do, that the Rabbi is the minister of darkness, not the minister of light as those that really care about your soul.

The Rabbi states that Christian missionaries who go out to convert the Jews should feel guilty. I feel no guilt, for I am simply obeying what God commands every enlightened man to do. This Rabbi Nuri should feel guilty not only for obscuring the truth from the Jewish people whom God loves but also for obscuring the precious Word of God from the rest of God's creation and condemning others for trying to get it to them. According to God's Word, Rabbi Nuri is the guilty one.

The Inquisition and the Holocaust were not brought about by Christians, but by none other than ungodly, religious leaders (the Vatican, Catholics, One-World Church, rejecters of God's Word, those who try to build a world of peace preaching unity and love (falsely called) at the expense and total disregard of God's truth (God's Word). No wonder Jesus labeled the Pharisees and Sadducees, the Sanhedrin and the scribes as hypocrites, vipers, snakes, whited sepulchers, in whom are found the bones of dead men. (Matt. 23:27-33)

Rabbi Nuri says that we are preaching hatred and anti-Semitism. What he is really saying is that his word is higher than God's and that God's Word is evil. There was one like unto him in the Old Testament who stated, "I will ascend into Heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most high." (Isa. 14:13,14)¹ In simpler language, I will change things and make them better than God does. (My word is better than His). Wasn't this a pompous meshuganah?² Thus, the people of the Old Testament were falsely instructed and took part in stoning the prophets of God. (Acts 7:52)

I speak to you my fellow Jewish people; do not be deceived by the Rabbi Nuri and others like him. The Rabbi says he believes in freedom, yet when we exercise our freedom of religion he falsely states that mine, (which is the powerful Word of God) will precipitate anger, hatred, and even war. God says in His Word that it may create hatred and anger in the ungodly; nevertheless, we had better preach it or when we die, we will go to a burning hell. At this point, I must reiterate that the terrible wars were not created by those who preach God's Word, but by those who twist and conceal it to suit their own purposes (such as Rabbi Nuri), leashing out in satanic hatred against those who preach God's Holy Word, wishing to make an evil world comfortable for themselves because they love sin and ignore the reality of the coming of true peace with God through God's only Son. When the Rabbi says that Christians are creating wars, he is saying that Moses caused the Egyptians to be evil and that Moses tried to destroy the Jews. He is saying that Moses and Aaron were evil because they knew that keeping God's commandments would anger Pharaoh. He is saying that Moses and Aaron should have left the children of Israel in the bondage of Egypt and disobeyed God. Wouldn't that be ridiculous? Would it not have been called by God evil and rebellious if Moses and Aaron had had the same philosophy as Rabbi Nuri?

For this Rabbi Nuri to say that I am going after the Jews motivated by hatred is an absolute contradiction to the Word of God. God says, "To the Jew first and then to the Greek", (Rom 2.9) so you see again the Rabbi greatly errs and again calls the Word of God and following the Word of God hatred when God clearly states the keeping of God's commandments is love. (II John 1:6) We wish only to tell the Jews the truth, because we love God's chosen people and do not wish for their souls to go to hell. We have no ulterior motives.

What the Jewish Rabbi is saying is, it's all right for Christians to preach the only way of eternal life to the gentiles, but let the Jews go to hell, by leaving the Jewish people in the darkness of ignorance. Christianity does not represent anti-Semitism; I support

Israel and am dismayed by the great move of anti-Semitism in this country. The powers of evil and darkness hate the Jews because it was through the lineage of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the House of David that the Lion from the tribe of Judah came. The powers of evil have never forgiven the Jews for this, the main reason why the powers of darkness have and will continue to hate and persecute us, the Jewish people. The same evil power persecutes the true born-again Christian who has accepted the Jewish Messiah, His Word, His way. Therefore, the Jews and the true born-again Christians have much in common because of the persecution they have received from the prince of darkness (Satan). Thus I must do what I do or else I will be in trouble with God. And for complying with God's wishes, by attempting to bring light to the Jewish people and to all the people of the world, it is written that I shall be persecuted.

Powers in the United States are trying to make the world believe that there is an energy crisis and that we, the Jews, are responsible for it. In reality, there is no energy shortage. The USA has over 3,000 years reserve of energy. They're trying to make people of the world believe we are dependent upon the Arabian countries for oil. This is being done to anger the American people, causing them to insist that we stop supporting Israel and side with the Arabian countries. Arabia and US-Arabian sympathizers (Jew-haters, agents of Satan) are using this lie as leverage against Israel. Wake up, my Jewish brothers and sisters!! Is this not a diabolical move to engender anti-Semitism? I have vast documentation in this regard. So you see – I am for Israel. My purpose is to eradicate this massive campaign of anti-Semitism; through the truth, I am exposing it to the world. (It cannot hold up under such scrutiny). And yet, Rabbi Nuri calls me anti-Semitic! Because of this, Jews who dominate the Miami Beach City Council are stonewalling me, preventing me from opening my church. Is this not evil? Is this allowing freedom of religion in this once free nation? Is this not anti-semitism? Is this not against the U.S. Constitution and our Bill of Rights? I am a Jew and I am telling you the truth.

This rabbi has emphasized that millions of Jews were slaughtered for not converting to Christianity. Let me stress that it was because the Jews refused to convert to Catholicism that these atrocities occurred, not Christianity. Remember Catholicism is not Christianity, never has been, never will be. The Vatican is our enemy. It is unfortunate that the Jews do not know the difference between Christianity and Catholicism. The Vatican and the structure of the Catholic Church say that Catholicism is Christianity. This is a fallacy, which can easily be proven when one reads the Bible. The Catholics themselves are deceived by the hierarchy of the Vatican. They are not aware of all the rottenness and atrocities that are going on in the Vatican. The place that God calls: mystery, Babylon, the mother of harlots, the mother of every abomination of the earth. There are millions of decent Catholics that want to know and do what God says. That's why God said, "Come out from among her my people and be ye a separate and holy people, that ye partake not of her sins." Rev. 18:4 and II Cor. 6:17.

I pray that Rabbi Nuri will read the scriptures that he may accept the true Jewish heritage that was meant for him and all the Jewish people, that he will accept the Jewish Messiah, the true Savior of the world, as I have done, by humbling himself before Yeshua who died for him, yea and is risen and alive forevermore, that he may accept that which God wants him to have-life from the Prince of Life, life eternal, life more abundantly with perfect peace and a sound mind. This is the true heritage of the Jewish people, and of all the nations that believe in God, world without end.

Why don't you receive the beginning of your eternal life now by saying this prayer?

Prayer

My Lord and my God, have mercy upon my soul, a sinner.³ I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of the Living God.⁴ I believe that He died on the cross and shed His precious blood for the forgiveness of all my sins.⁵ I believe that God raised Jesus from the dead by the power of the Holy Spirit⁶ and that He sits on the right hand of God at this moment, hearing my confession of sin and this prayer.⁷ I open up the door of my heart and I invite You into my heart, Lord Jesus.⁸ Wash all of my filthy sins away in the precious blood that You shed in my place on the cross at Calvary.⁹ You will not turn me away, Lord Jesus, You will forgive my sins and save my soul. I know because Your Word, the Bible says so.¹⁰ Your Word says that You will turn no one away, and that includes me.¹¹ Therefore, I know that You have heard me, and I know that You have answered me, and I know that I am saved.¹² And I thank You, Lord Jesus, for saving my soul, and I will show my thankfulness by doing as You command and sin no more.¹³

¹³ John 8:11, I Cor. 15:10, Rev. 7:14, 22:14

You've just completed the first step in a series of five steps which are necessary to receive salvation. Your second step is to deny yourself and take up the cross daily for the purpose of mortifying yourself, that is, for putting to death your own will, your soulful self, and the world with all of its lusts. All these must be baptized into the death of Christ.

Step three is your resurrection from the satanic life of Adam unto the sinless life of Christ. Step four is your ascension into a position of authority to reign for God on earth, and the fifth step is to reign for God on earth to the end for the purpose of bringing about the kingdom of Heaven on earth. You must learn the Word of God, then submit yourself and do what the Word says, so that the Church and the world may see evidence of your submission to God's Word, His order, and His authority in and by you.

Praise the Lord. May God reward you abundantly.

World Pastor Tony Alamo
