

WHAT THE MEDIA WON'T TELL YOU

The controlled media has a knack for diverting the discussion of REAL issues onto rabbit trails that prevent intelligent solutions from being applied to problems. What do I mean by that? The best way to explain what I'm trying to get at is to give a few examples of cases in point:

#1 – The issue of gun control has been diverted from a discussion of whether or not the government has a RIGHT to prohibit any kind of gun ownership to a discussion about whether or not you need an Uzi to go duck hunting.... well, you WOULD get a lot more ducks, but the second amendment was not written into the Constitution so that you and I could go duck hunting; it was put there by the founders as a “fail-safe” – so that we would be able to defend ourselves against our own government – just in case the Constitutional protections failed. The second Amendment is a “fail-safe” mechanism that any government aspiring to usurp its people's rights, and destroy God-given freedoms must destroy in order to become a Nazi-style dictatorship.

I really could care less who agrees or disagrees; if you disagree, you are arguing from a position of ignorance... nothing wrong with ignorance; ignorance can be fixed. That is the primary mission here. Stupidity, however, has been defined as “The pursuit of ignorance”. In the Bible, 2 Peter 3, verse 5, it says that the people of the end-times “WILLINGLY ARE IGNORANT...” – that means “Dumb on purpose”.

#2 – As far as religion is concerned; the Mainstream media has swapped the term “Fundamentalist” and “Extremist” in their discussions on Islamic terrorism. In other words, where they SHOULD say “Islamic FUNDAMENTALIST”, they say “Islamic EXTREMIST”, and vice-versa. “Be not deceived”, it says in the Bible, “God is not mocked.” There IS a God, my dear friends, and He won't long tolerate people who murder innocent people in His name... and I like to kick this dog every time I walk by; Allah is not the God of the Christians and the Jews – If you have your doubts go to www.VicMord.com and get clear about that, at least! America may be the land of religious freedom, but when YOUR religion threatens MY family and MY way of life; when your “religion” is diametrically opposed to all that is beneficial to the survival of the human race, then those who are in charge of the government, are supposed to act to protect the people who elected them.

There is overwhelming evidence that the government of this country is really A SHADOW GOVERNMENT. What do I mean by that? Well, let's start with JFK. Who had him killed, and why? What was Vietnam all about? – I am a veteran of that war – YOU NEED TO READ MY BOOK – “Land of Childhood's Fears” – which goes into the reason why JFK was killed, and a brand new theory about who did it, and why.

More recent in people's memories is the '93 WTC bombing, TWA flight 800, Waco, Ruby Ridge, Oklahoma City, and of course, 9-11... all the pertinent facts were covered-up.

The question is, dear reader, is why a government which purports to act on behalf of its citizens, would lie about these things?

To add to the list of things that are so outrageous and so audacious that they are unbelievable prima facie', is what this government is doing in Iraq. The best example is the use of “depleted” uranium-cased ordinance, which is toxic as any heavy metal (such as lead and mercury), and is radioactive – with a half-life of 4.5 billion years (see www.hiddenwars.com).

Where are Rush Limbaugh's Environmentalist Whack-os on this issue? – We don't hear a peep from them, because they are part of the problem. They are paid by big business to harass nuclear plants so that we become increasingly dependent on oil – the oil that the elite in big business control. In the meantime, the Middle East, Bosnia, Chechnya, Kosovo, and Afghanistan are slowly being made unfit for habitation by man or beast, by a contamination that will not dissipate within the projected viability of the planet.

America needs to wake up to the REAL reasons we were attacked, and to the discovery that the government of the United States actually aided and abetted the attacks on 9-11.

Yes, my dear readers, it is far better for the FBI and the CIA to admit to being bumbling, incompetent buffoons and feign embarrassment, than to assert competence in the teeth of fact and be found guilty of sedition and treason. Why else do you think the director of “Homeland Security”, and half of Bush’s cabinet abandoned ship like a herd of lemmings? I’ll tell you why – the heat in the proverbial kitchen is getting too hot... the multiple lawsuits from victim’s families are threatening to compel disclosure of what the culpable parties desperately want to keep the American people from discovering. The underlying truth, buried under a tangle of “rabbit trails” such as Osama bin Laden, Saddam Hussein, et al, is that the shadow government that has been running this country ever since JFK was murdered is trying to perpetuate the apparency of a democratic government beyond the point of its believability. They are afraid that in the wake of a 9-11 conspiracy trial, some of them will be exposed for what they really are, and then put up against a wall and shot – as well they should be.

I’m here to tell you, that it is about time that America wakes up, and stops believing the lies, and stops tolerating the obfuscation of information regarding 9-11, as well as the facts about JFK, RFK, MLK, et al. We have reached the point where the lies are starting NOT to be believed – and that is the only power that this government has over us; their ability to heap bullshit story upon bullshit story, upon bullshit story until it is piled so high that it becomes impossible to separate fact from fiction. FACT, should it be disclosed, would not be believed... truth is stranger than fiction, my dear friends. The tower of Babel in Washington DC is so high; that those on the top are getting vertigo... they’re bailing out in droves before the ka-ka hits the air movement device.

The law has a very powerful axiom that deals with allegations based on circumstantial evidence:

*“The danger with the use of circumstantial evidence is that of logical gaps; subjective inferential links of low probability or insufficient degree”.*¹

You would think that a group of radical religious “nut jobs” who blow themselves up shouting “Allah akhbar” (Allah is greater), would have been able to pull off another 9-11 style attack – given that our Intelligence community is so incompetent! – Listen to me! I worked in Crypto for 4 years in the USAF. Granted; that was 32 years ago, but some things are not likely to change. People working in Mil-Intel, and for the FBI or CIA, didn’t get there by virtue of their stupidity or their incompetence. They didn’t keep those jobs by being stupid, either – trust me! As I said before, “Better to admit being bumbling, incompetent buffoons and feign embarrassment, than to assert competence in the teeth of fact and be found guilty of sedition and treason.”

Therefore, we have the circumstantial evidence to allege that the government – the SHADOW government that operates under the cloak – with the APPARENCY – of a Constitutional Democracy – that this government gave tacit consent for the 9-11 attacks. However, the axiom states that there is a “danger” because of “logical gaps” and “subjective inferential links”. If we want to use that evidence, we must close the logical gaps, and have objective (real) evidence, instead of opinions and the ranting of wanna-be anarchists and “conspiracy nuts”.

In my book “The Lie Detection Manual”, I set forth 61 axioms as guidelines on how to tell when someone is lying. IF the government is lying about 9-11 – and I have every reason to believe that they ARE – then I have to ask the logical question “Why?” – What is there to conceal?

If Osama bin Laden is behind the terrorist attacks as alleged, I should think he knows more about that day than the FBI or the CIA. Are we hiding something from HIM? – Hardly! With $35 million in reward money “dead or alive”, I have to ask another logical question: “Why aren’t all the aspiring mercenaries from Soldier of Fortune Magazine not chomping at the bit for the dubious distinction of “bustin’ a cap” in Osama’s crusty old Towel-head ass?” Your guess is as good as mine.

There is precious little space on this planet where one can hide. There are bloodhounds that can follow the scent of a kidnap victim riding in a car down a freeway in the pouring rain. There are satellites in space that on a clear day can look through the windshield of a car and get a good resolution photograph of the driver and passenger. GPS-guided cruise missiles can be steered right into a bedroom window. So please – when I hear on the NEWS that the US Government is looking to find Osama bin Laden, it just wants to make me toss my cookies.

Precisely because these things are so outrageous, is the reason why the government gets away with it. If they were to do something BELIEVABLE, then the people would become outraged, and possibly throw the bastards out of office. While they do things that are so nefarious and so egregious, it is unbelievable, and therefore anyone who would make an allegation from a standpoint of verity, is looked upon as just another “conspiracy nut”, or better still, “a religious fanatic”.

Consider this, my friends; consider that William Cooper was murdered by a police SWAT team for less than I have alleged here, and certainly less than what I have alleged in my book: “Land of Childhood’s Fears”. Yes, Vietnam ended 30 years ago this April, but the parallels to the war in Iraq are frightening.

Do we have a government that operates in the best interests of the governed, or are the governed skillfully manipulated by Psychopolitics into believing what the government wants them to believe? Read my book, “A Synthesis of The Russian Brainwashing Manual on Psychopolitics”. The threat operates from within, and it encounters no resistance except from people like a dozen others I can name, and myself who speak the truth and are laughed to scorn. That’s OK, because God gave me the spiritual discernment, and I EXPECT these things to happen; it has been predicted long, long ago in the Biblical prophesies which I prefer to call, “The history of the future”.

Does it seem like people are trying to solve spiritual problems with pills these days? Which came first, psychiatrists, and psychosocial ‘counselors’ in our schools, or Columbine? Who can name just ONE person who has fallen under the hands of a psychiatrist, psychologist, or other Hick Farmer Sigmund Freud Wannabe, and has escaped with more than half the ‘marbles’ he had before? The answers are obvious. You need to do some research, and it won’t cost you a cent... all it will cost you is a few minutes, and you’ll see. Go to the web site of Freedom Magazine at: www.freedommag.org and read their “Hidden Hand of Violence” issue. Go to the web site of Citizen’s Commission on Human Rights International at www.cchr.org and check out their online magazine titled “Psychiatry vs. Religion”. You will see documented, empirical evidence; proof beyond ANY doubt, that what I have written here is objective fact.

Now that we have the physical and psychological threats covered, albeit in brief, let’s move on to the intangible spiritual battles...

The Bible tells us that there are “Principalities and Powers”, and “Spiritual wickedness in high places”. The devil’s time is short, and he is NOT in hell (yet); he is thrashing about, going “to and fro” (as it says in Job chapter 2), seeking to destroy the souls of God’s people. He particularly is after the youngsters who are innocent, malleable, and easily manipulated, such as the boys who, since Columbine, have turned their schools into re-enactments – albeit a scaled-down “boy” version of the My Lai massacre.

If you read my book “Land of Childhood’s Fears”, I discuss at length, with several other vet peers, what could have caused American boys to rape and murder 504 innocent people at My Lai. There is all the reason in the world to suspect that these boys were the objects of a CIA mind-control experiment. There is overwhelming evidence to suggest that similar concoctions given in much lower doses to children, causes the same effect, albeit delayed, because the child’s natural ethics and morality are pitted against a relentless influence of what amounts to mind control drugs. The child’s ability to resist the violent impulses – especially since he is being conditioned by violence in video games and on TV – is eventually overwhelmed, and the behavior erupts into mindless violence without direction or purpose. That is what is happening in our schools today, and for all of the posturing, and all of the pathological lies being bandied about, the people in the pharmaceutical industry that manufactures and sells these drugs know about the effects just as surely as the military knew about the carcinogenic effects of Paraquat and Dioxin (Agent Orange) during the Korean War.

That there is government control of the media in this country, there can be no doubt. We at Net4TruthUSA are going to “blow up the spot” on just some of the abuses. Check this web site regularly, since we are always working on it.

God Bless and Godspeed,
